TOY MACHINE PRO
JOHNNY
LAYTON

"Johnny Layton has for sure earned his rightful place on the toy machine PRO team. We didn't rush him pro so we could make cash, we kept him am until it was VERY clear that he was the best am in the industry. Just look at the Skateboard Mag and their glowing review of his year by voting him the worlds best am. Now their is a demand for his board, and his career will start off on the right foot. When I asked him what he wanted for graphics, he replied, "I want some dark sh*t." So I enlisted a young kid of J-Lay's age to draw up some dark sh*t. My Friend Kyle Aronson sketched up 2 of Johnny's first 3 pro boards. I took the Honor of doing his first pro board, the Part Animal Part Toy Machine one..." - Ed Templeton

"Lori D is an awesome artist friend of mine who lives up in Vancouver BC. She is a skater and helps do the Villa-Villa Cola fanzine and their Video. AJW series

"Andrew J. Wright is part of the legendary Space 1026 in Philadelphia http://www.space1026.com/ He is good friends with Jim Houser, another artist I use a lot for TM graphics. He makes these really funny comics and zines that I laugh at every time I get one. In one, he did this "Mr. ET" drawing that I died laughing when I saw. I had just been thinking about doing an ET graphic, because my initials are ET, but I wanted his glowing finger to be his middle one. So when I saw this drawing I had to ask Andrew to do a series for us. He has done a series in the past: The photos of stuffed animals laying tootsie roll logs. This is another example of toy machine bringing fine artists who work more in galleries into the skate world."

FOUNDATION SKATEBOARDS
Mike Rusczyk
RE: Amateur Retirement
Mike,
It is my regrettable duty to inform you of our recent decision to "retire" you as amateur skateboarder for Foundation Skateboard Company. You have been riding for us for 6 years and we have been through hell and back together. After overcoming many challenges and spots you were able to successfully impact your position in the skateboarding community and excel with your unique and creative skateboarding abilities. Over the last two years you have gotten massive amounts of coverage and traveled the world spreading the gospel of the F.
Unfortunately upon retiring you from amateur status we will deem you as the newest "Pro" to the Foundation crew. You will be required to continue to skate like a madman, travel the world exploring exotic spots, and appear in magazines. You will also be forced to come up with an amazing part for the fall 2006 Foundation release of "Cataclysmic Abyss", as well as make tons of cash, get chased by pro hoe's and party with your skate crew.
I hope that you are not entirely disappointed at the prospect of your "Pro" status. Your pro models are available now along with your Mike Rusczyk: The Retirement Party DVD featuring you, the Foundation Team and your friends.
With the utmost sincerity,
Tod Swank
President and Founder

WELCOME TO THE PARTY

PROPAGANDA SERIES
Featuring photography by Shad Lambert

We started Foundation Ministry of Propaganda back in 1966. Many years before the "official" launch of Foundation Skateboards Equipment Corp back in 1989. It is not real. It does not exist, but maybe it does!?! To infiltrate young and old minds alike with the cohesiveness collaboration of nonsensical emphatic cerebral modification. "We're so advanced we don't even know what we are talking about." company founder, Tod Swank, missing since 1990.

MIKE RUSCZYK (RUS-SICK)

"My friend Stephen drew the retirement graphic; he is a really good skateboarder and is one of my favorite artists. Some years ago Stephen was involved in a very serious accident. He got really hurt and lost the use of his legs. It is lucky for us and anyone who has the grace of knowing Stephen that he did not check out of this planet at the time of his injury."

"It is my upmost pleasure to have his artwork on the bottom of my first professional skateboard. Thanks be hailed to Dos Wolf for creating my first board."

(F) classics

Star and Moon Classic: This was one of the first ever Foundation graphics. I actually still have the original drawing that is only about 1" x 1" big. I was and still am a science fiction (fact!) fan. This graphic represents the grand universe and how truly amazing our tiny little planet is. How rare we as humans and animals are. We should respect and celebrate each other and not take for granted our one in a zillion chance of being here. A being about to have thought and reason and appendages that do our will.

Splendor Classic: This was a Skull Skates graphic before Foundation got started. This version was actually a quarter page add somewhere and looks better than the actual graphic.

Teapot Classic: Was this a Justin Lovely Graphic from Skull Skates? Did this teapot stencil appear throughout North County San Diego in the mid 80's? Is this the first time it has been released as deck since 1988? Affirmed.

Limited Edition
Steve Olson Tribute Deck

" I have been a long time acquaintance of both Doug 'Pineapple' Saladino and Dave Hackett for many years, I was an era behind them both. I met Dave through my TWS days and again through my stint with Skull Skates, riding various L.A. backyard pools. Pine, I really didn't get to know until recent years. We were, coincidentally next door neighbors in North Park, San Diego, I mean right next door. We teamed up years later with some other historical dudes, Mike Folmer, Brad Bowan, Wentzle Ruml, Tom Inouye and a couple others that I am not sure if were there or not ,to collaborate on "DeathBox". Not the Deathbox that many remember as Jeremy Fox of pre-Flip's U.K. days.

On the verge of the old school revolution and the major motion picture release of Lords of Dogtown, we embarked. Deathbox is the blue collar working man's skateboard company. We respect and honor our forefathers. And we respect and honor the determination and loyalty of that select crew that skates for the purity of it all, Not concerned with industry B.S., media attention or enamored endorsement deals. Just riding of the board. Going forward in 2006 and beyond we will give props to the unsung Heros, the iconic mentors and pay tribute to the roots of our beginnings." - Deathbox 2006 TS

The DB Hawaiian Surf long board graphic was inspired by a rare Steel wheeled board from the 1960's with the same name. The Hack put a pirate vibe on it and viola! The DB Hawaiian Pirate Surf Long board was born!

This flat nose long board was designed for checking the sets, chicks or just plain cruising.
